

Norfolk Gardens Trust Journal Spring 2001

Contents Chairman's Comment
A future project for the Trust

Beautifully Laid out
Anthea Taigel examines the history and development of some of Norfolk's ornamental cemeteries

Garden Study
Roger Last visits the gardens at Stody Lodge in north Norfolk

A Bigger Splash
The St. George and the dragon Fountain at Holkham Hall is the largest in the county. Christine Hiskey reveals more than pure display

The Gardens of Crown Point
Bryony Nierop-Reading examines the fluctuating fortunes of one of Norfolk's most important period gardens

Park Progress
Ali Dore charts the progress on the restoration of Norwich's Sandys-Winsch parks

The Business of Gardening
Tom Williamson looks at nurseries in 18th century Norfolk

Empty Enclosures
The Kitchen garden has proved especially vulnerable. Ceri Lamb traces the remains at Riddlesworth Hall

NGT Events for 2001

The Trust's Committee