

Norfolk Gardens Trust

NOVEMBER TALK & CHRISTMAS SOCIAL : SATURDAY 23rd NOVEMBER 2019 at 2pm

Venue: Bawdeswell Village Hall, Reepham Road, NR20 4RU

'Shakespeare's Gardens'

An illustrated talk by Jackie Bennet on her book of the same name.

Was Shakespeare a Gardener?

Author Jackie Bennett sets out to explore the gardens William Shakespeare knew as boy and man both in Stratford-upon-Avon and London. The talk will be illustrated with 16th century herbals and historic material from the Shakespeare Birthplace Trust who commissioned Jackie to write the book about its gardens – including a contemporary garden at Shakespeare's last home, New Place.

The talk will be illustrated with 16th century herbals and historic material from the Shakespeare Birthplace Trust who commissioned Jackie to write the book about its gardens – including a contemporary garden at Shakespeare's last home, New Place.

To ensure that we can accommodate all who may wish to come to the November Talk - which is also our 'Christmas' social gathering - please apply in advance giving your name, email address and telephone number together with a cheque payable to the NGT to Karen Moore, Point House, Back Street, Litcham PE32 2PA. Tickets will not be issued but all applications will be acknowledged by email and your name will be checked against our list on arrival. If you are not on email and would like an acknowledgement please include a sae with your application.

Talk starts at 2pm followed by Tea
Admission £5 for Members and £6 for Guests

Karen Moore, NGT Events Secretary

Tel: 01328 700313 email: moore.karen@icloud.com