

Norfolk Gardens Trust

President: The Marquess of Cholmondeley GCVO DL

GENERAL MEETING ~ SATURDAY 20th APRIL 2024 at 2pm
All Saints Church, Church Road, Catfield, Great Yarmouth NR29 5DA
(by kind invitation of The Revd Gary Noyes and Churchwardens)

What3Words : movements.complies.smoker

Directions:

All Saints Church can be accessed from either Church Road (disabled parking next to the church) or School Lane (parking in the field opposite The Old Rectory). From the latter, walk across the lane and enter the short driveway of The Old Rectory from where a pedestrian access leads across the churchyard.

Refreshments will be served in the church after the AGM.

Following the AGM you are invited to visit the garden of The Old Rectory, the home of Mrs Penny Middleditch, and enjoy the massed planting of spring bulbs.

The poet William Cowper, staying with his uncle, The Revd Roger Donne then the Rector of All Saints, said of Catfield ...

"In all places in the earth, I love Catfield".

If you wish to attend (and for catering purposes) please reply by 13th April 2024 by email to rogerlloyd@talktalk.net or complete and return the information requested below and send to Roger Lloyd, Secretary NGT, 57 St Leonard's Road Norwich NR1 4JW.

Norfolk Gardens Trust

AGM - All Saints Church, Catfield - Saturday 20th April 2024 at 2pm

I / We shall be attending. Number (Please insert as appropriate)

Name:

Address:

Email: